

Brenda Dumler is a Family and Consumer Sciences teacher at Lee's Summit West High School in Lee's Summit, MO. She is in her twenty second year of teaching and advising an FCCLA chapter. Brenda Dumler uses the Family Economics and Financial Education curriculum with high school students in the Independent Living class offered at LSWSH. Throughout her career Brenda Dumler has been active in several professional organizations including MSTA, ACTE, MOACTE, MoEFACS, AAFCS, NATFACS and has served in leadership positions by making presentations on curriculum and technology at several state and national meetings.