

Donna Stewart is a Family and Consumer Sciences teacher at Oakland High School in Oakland, Illinois. She is in her 24th year of teaching and advising an FCCLA chapter. Donna uses the Family Economics & Financial Education curriculum with high school students in Resource Management. Throughout her career Donna has been active in several professional organizations including; Illinois Family and Consumer Sciences Teachers Association, Illinois FCCLA and Oakland Education Association. She is currently serving as Region 4 Representative on the Board of Directors for IFACSTA. She has served on the board for Illinois FCCLA, as well as STAR Event Coordinator and Peer Education Coordinator. She has served as membership chair, insurance committee chair and negotiating team member of the OEA. Donna received The Outstanding Program of the Year Award for IFACSTA and is a November 2005 Japan Fulbright Memorial Fund Scholar.