

Irene Nelson~~~~Irene Nelson has had a passion to teach financial life skills since she started teaching special education in 1978. In the 90's she was an advisor with a School to Work Grant through Chief Dull Knife College. Irene was the first teacher sponsor of the First Interstate Mini Bank in Colstrip at the elementary level. In 2001, she received the Montana Governor's Award for Excellence on behalf of the Mini Bank. After 20 years in special education, teaching K-12, she moved to the Frank Brattin Middle School FCS program in 2002. Irene has been a FEFE Master Teacher for 3 years and she teaches lessons from "Get Ready to Take Charge of Your Finances" to middle school students.

To contact Irene: e-mail her at: irene.nelson@colstrip.k12.mt.us