

Kathi Hendrix is a Family and Consumer Sciences teacher at Selah High School in Selah, Washington. She is in her 27 year of teaching and 20th year of advising an FCCLA chapter. Hendrix uses the Family Economics and Financial Education curriculum with high school students in Consumer Economics. Throughout her career Hendrix has been active in several professional organizations including; the American, Washington and Yakima Associations of Family and Consumer Sciences. She served as president of the Washington and Yakima Associations. She is a national FCCLA consultant and was named FCCLA Adviser of the Year in Washington State. She is a Washington FCCLA Honorary Member and an Adviser or Adviser as well as Master and Mentor adviser. Hendrix received Family and Consumer Sciences Teacher of the Year awards from the Family and Consumer Sciences Educator section of WA-ACTE; Washington and Oregon FACS Teacher of the Year from the Association of Family and Consumer Sciences and was named a Top Ten FACS Teacher of the Year by the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences.