

Kris Brockhoff is a Family and Consumer Sciences teacher at Winner High School in Winner, South Dakota. She is in her 15th year of teaching and advising an FCCLA chapter. Kris uses the Family Economics & Financial Education curriculum with high school students in FACS I, Life Skills, Parenting, and Employability classes. Throughout her career Kris has been active in several professional organizations including: South Dakota Association of Family and Consumer Sciences, American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences, South Dakota Association of Teachers of Family and Consumer Science, South Dakota Association for Career and Technical Education, Association for Career and Technical Education, Winner Education Association, South Dakota Education Association, National Education Association and has served as President Elect, President & Past President of the SDATFACS; South Dakota Vice President of Planning, District G Chairperson, District F Co-Chairperson, and SD Silent Auction/Scholarship Chair-SDAFCS; Kris received the 2003 South Dakota Association of Family, and Consumer Sciences Teacher of the Year Award, 2004 Top Ten AAFCS Teacher of the Year, Honorary Member of District VI FCCLA, South Dakota FCCLA Honorary Member, FCCLA Master Advisor Award, FCCLA Mentor Advisor Award, and 2002 South Dakota FCCLA Advisor of the Year. She has been the FCCLA advisor to 2 national officers, 6 state officers, 13 district officers, and 10 state peer educators. She has been named to Who's Who Among America's Teachers, along with being nominated to serve on the South Dakota Department of Education and Cultural Affairs validation/standard setting panel for teacher licensure assessment, and serves on the South Dakota Department of Education and Cultural Affairs committee to write and adopt standards for a new South Dakota personal finance course.