

Nancy Linnell is a family and consumer sciences and business teacher at Sunburst High School in Sunburst, MT. She is in her 33rd year of teaching and 23rd year advising an FCCLA chapter. Nancy uses the Family Economics & Financial Education curriculum with high school students in most of her courses. She has been involved with the FEFE project since its beginning. Throughout her career Nancy has been active in several professional organizations including; Montana Association of ACTE, Montana Association of AAFCS, and FCCLA Alumni & Associates and currently serves as secretary on the National FCCLA Board of Directors and chair of the Montana FCCLA Advisory Board. Nancy has received FCCLA Master Adviser, Adviser Mentor and Spirit of Advising awards, and the 1996 Montana Association of FCS Technology Leader of the Year award.