

Priscilla Hedgecock received her B.S. in Home Economics from Colorado State University. She has taught for 33 years. She received her M.S in Vocation Education from Northern Montana College. Ms. Hedgecock has been a part of the FEFE project since 2001. She has tested and evaluated many lessons and attended all of the trainings. She has added a semester course to her curriculum titled Family Finance, but continues to teach lessons from the FEFE curriculum in all of the FCS classes. Ms. Hedgecock has been a member of MAFCS and MACTE for most of her teaching career. She received the MAFCS TOY Award in 1997, and the Professional of the Year Award in 2003. She was chosen to represent the MAFCS as the division TOY in 2002 and was honored to be MACTE 2002 Teacher of the Year. She became an FCCLA Master Advisor in 1992 and Advisor Mentor in 1998.