

Traci is an 8th grade Work and Family Studies teacher at Verity Middle School in Middletown, Ohio. She is in her 3rd year of teaching and 4th year advising an FCCLA chapter. Traci uses the Family Economics & Financial Education curriculum with her junior high students in the consumer & family resources program. Throughout her career Traci has been active in several professional organizations including; Indiana Family & Consumer Sciences Association; American Association of Family & Consumer Sciences; Ohio Career and Technical Association; and Phi Upsilon Omicron and has served as FCCLA National lead consultant. Traci received the outstanding Family & Consumer Sciences senior award from Ball State University. She has made presentations at the National Phi Upsilon Omicron meeting and the Regional Family & Consumer Sciences WIM Conferences. Traci enjoys helping student's complete STAR events and writing curriculum.